Executive Summary

Remembering September 11, 2001

In recognition of the 343 members of fire service, and all others who lost their lives on September 11th, 2001, the Belmont Fire Department held a ceremony of remembrance at fire stations 14 & 15. At 6:46 am, the time the first tower collapsed, fire crews assembled at each station flag pole, lowered the flag, observed a moment of silence and then raised the flag to half-staff for the remainder of the day.

At City Hall, Piper - Larry Horton from San Mateo played the bagpipes in before a flag flying at half-staff as employees stood in silence. Click for a short video
